

Pascal Lejeune will be the artist at the Musical Dinner Theatre on August 5th

August 3rd 2010 - Pascal Lejeune is an Acadian artist and his music is without borders. His skill at writing and creating melodies make him one of the most interesting young artists on the French-Canadian stage. A great sense of humour coupled with poetry... this man seduces the crowds with his own brand of style. He's an atypical, yet universal singer! He has two albums: Adélaïde (2009) produced by Yves Desrosiers and Le commun des bordels (2007). He has put on almost 200 shows since 2007, all across Canada, in France, in Slovenia, Switzerland and in Belgium, not to mention a series of shows in Vancouver for the 2010 Olympic Games. For more information, www.pascallejeune.com

